Section 1.2. This agreement shall become effective on the 1st day of January, 2011, and shall continue in full force and effect through December 31, 2011. In the event no newer agreement is reached upon an expiration date of this agreement, it shall remain in full effect until 30 days after either party has given written notice to terminate the agreement.

Section 1.3. The parties agree to negotiate in 2011 for the succeeding year(s) contract on wages, benefits, and working conditions. These negotiations shall begin on or after October 3, 2011 and shall commence upon written notice by either party. The parties agree to negotiate during this period in a manner which will provide a timely settlement in preparation for the 2011 Court budget.

Section 1.4. The Employer and the Union shall be each limited to three (3) representatives for purposes of collective bargaining. The Union international representative will not be included in this limitation and shall attend or not attend at his discretion.

Section 1.5. Members of the Unit Committee shall not lose pay for attendance at negotiating sessions providing that sessions are equally distributed between working and non-working hours. Negotiating sessions shall be agreed to by mutual consent.

Section 1.6. If both parties agree, contract terms may be changed by a written Letter of Understanding which has been approved by the bargaining unit and the Employer.

ARTICLE II.
RECOGNITION

Section 2.1. The Probate Court recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for purposes of establishing salaries, wages, hours, and other conditions of employment for those employees who are designated as within the bargaining unit.

Section 2.2. The Bargaining Unit, for the purpose of this agreement, shall be defined as all Probate Court employees.

ARTICLE III. UNION SECURITIES

Section 3.1. The Employer will not aid, promote or finance any labor group or organization which purports to engage in collective bargaining or make any agreement with any such group or organization for the purpose of undermining the Union.

Section 3.2. Membership in the Union is not compulsory. Full-time employees have the right to join, not join, maintain or drop their membership in the Union as they see fit. Neither party shall assert any pressure on or discriminate against any employee in regard to such matters.

Section 3.3. Membership in the Union is separate, apart, and distinct from the assumption by one of his equal obligation to the extent that he receives equal benefits. The Union is required under this agreement, to represent all of the employees in the bargaining unit fairly and equally without regard to whether or not an employee is a member of a union. Terms of this agreement have been made for all employees in the bargaining unit not only for members in the Union, and this agreement has been executed by the Employer after it has satisfied itself that the Union is the choice of the majority of the employees in the bargaining unit. Accordingly, it is fair that each employee in the bargaining unit pay his own way and assume his fair share of the obligation along with the grant of equal benefit contained in this agreement.

Section 3.4. In accordance with the policy set forth under Paragraphs 3.2 and 3.3 of this Article, all employees in the bargaining unit shall, as a condition of continued employment, pay to the Union the employees exclusive collective bargaining representative, an amount of money equal to that paid by other employees in the bargaining unit who are members of the Union, which shall be limited to an amount of money equal to the Union's regular and usual dues. Section 3.5. The Employer agrees to deduct from the pay of all employees covered by this agreement, dues and initiation fees of the international union and agrees to remit to the international union all such deductions prior to the end of the month for which the deduction is made. The law requires written authorization by the employees, same is to be furnished in form required.

Section 3.6. The Union may verify with the Employer quarterly or when an update is necessary, a list of its members working for the Employer who have furnished to the Employer the required authorization, together with an itemized statement of dues, initiation fees, (full or installment) owed to and deducted for such amount from the pay of each member, and the Employer shall deduct such amounts from the first paycheck following receipt in one lump sum. The Employer shall add to the lists submitted by the Union the names of all regular new employees hired since the last list was submitted and delete the names of employees who are no longer employed.

Section 3.7. When an employee who is on checkoff but not on the payroll during the week in which the deduction has to be made or has no earnings or insufficient earnings during that week or is on leave of absence, the employee must make arrangements with the Union to pay such dues in advance. Management has no enforcement authority on employees paying Union dues while on authorized leaves of absence.

Section 3.8. Conferences for employee matters shall be scheduled between the Chairman of the Bargaining Committee and the Employer or his designated representative at a mutually agreed upon time. Arrangements for such conferences shall be made in advance and an agenda of the specific matters to be taken up at the meeting shall be presented prior to the conference including a time limit placed upon the length of each meeting.

Section 3.9. It shall be the policy of the Employer to notify the Union whenever there is an intent to transfer employees, downgrade, eliminate or add new job classifications, or assign, delegate or transfer work presently performed by Unit employees to employee(s) outside the Bargaining Unit.

Section 3.10. The Union agrees to defend, indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders or judgments brought or any action taken or not taken by the Employer on the provisions of this article.

Its judgment in these respects shall not be subject to challenge. These rights vested in the Employer include, but are not limited to, those provided by statute or law, along with the right to determine and from time to time re-determine the number, location and type of work forces, facilities, operations, and the methods necessary and equipment to be employed; the scope of services to be performed, the method of service and the schedule of work time; to contract and subcontract existing and future work not to adversely affect the personnel work force, to discontinue conduct of its mission or operation in whole or in part; to determine whether and to what extent the work required in its operation shall be performed by employees covered by this agreement; to transfer its work from or to, either in whole or in part to any numbers, types and grades of positions or employees assigned to any organization or unit, department or project; to establish and change work schedules, assignments and facility locations; to hire, transfer, promote and demote employees; to lay-off, terminate, or otherwise relieve employees from duty for lack of work or other legitimate reasons; to suspend, discharge or discipline employees for cause, to use supervisors or other Court employees to perform work of the kind performed by the employees of the unit provided employees of the unit are not adversely affected; to alter, discontinue or vary past practices and otherwise to take such measures as management may determine to be necessary for the orderly efficient and economical operations of the Court. Section 4.3. If the Probate Judge or in his/her absence the official so designated to act in his/her absence, declares that the Court cannot be opened or operated in its usual manner due to weather conditions, natural disaster, civil disturbance, or any other officially declared emergency, an employee shall not be subject to any deduction in pay and the time lost will not be taken from any accumulated annual, sick, or compensatory time. Section 4.5. Individual employees or groups of employees who instigate, aid or engage in work stoppage, slow down or strike may be disciplined or discharged in the sole discretion of the Employer. It is understood that any question as to whether an employee or employees were, in fact, engaged in such prescribed activity may be resolved through the grievance process.

Section 5.3. The Union agrees to conduct its business off the job as much as possible. This section shall not be construed so as to prevent a Union representative from fulfilling his or her responsibilities as provided in the grievance procedure, nor shall it be construed to prevent certain routine business such as posting of Union notices and bulletins.

Section 5.4. Union business agents or representatives having business with the employees may confer with such employees during lunch or break periods or, when absolutely necessary and approved in advance by the Employer during hours of work, provided always that such discussions not take place in the presence of customers or other members of the public. Management will allow sufficient time for Union matters during the work day.

ARTICLE VI.
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 6.1. Statement of Purpose: The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest level possible, equitable solutions to the problems of the parties. The parties intend that the grievance procedure shall serve as a means for the peaceful settlement of the disputes as they arise concerning the interpretation of this agreement, without any interruption or disturbance of the normal operation of the Probate Court. Grievances are limited to matters of interpretation or application of express provisions of this agreement. The parties, recognizing that an orderly grievance procedure is necessary, agree that each step must be adhered to as set forth herein. Any grievance filed shall refer to the provision of the agreement alleged to have been violated, shall set forth the facts pertaining to the alleged violation, and shall state the settlement or correction requested. Employee grievances shall be handled in the following manner:

Step 1. Oral Grievance. An employee who has a grievance shall orally submit it to his immediate supervisor within 5 working days after the date of occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or within 5 working days after the employee becomes aware of it. The immediate supervisor shall give his answer orally to the employee within 5 working days following the presentation by the employee. Nothing herein shall prevent an employee from being represented by his Unit Representative at any step of the grievance procedure. Any employee may request his immediate supervisor to call the unit representative, alternate unit representative, or committee person to handle a specified grievance. The immediate supervisor shall arrange a meeting with the unit representative or committee person prior to the end of the shift or as soon as is reasonable.

Step 2. Written Grievance. If the grievance is not resolved in step 1, the employee shall reduce the grievance to writing, and present it to his Supervisor within 20 calendar days after the occurrence of the circumstance giving rise to the grievance. The written grievance shall state the event, condition, or circumstance giving rise to the grievance, the provisions of the agreement allegedly violated or misinterpreted, and the relief requested. The employee's Supervisor shall, within 5 working days after receipt of the written grievance, meet with the grievant and Union representative. The employee's Supervisor shall render his written disposition of the grievance within 5 working days after the meeting.

Step 3. Department Head. Failing to resolve the grievance in the second step, the employee shall, within 5 working days of the receipt of the Supervisor's written disposition take the matter up with the department head, who shall within 5 working days of receipt of the written grievance meet with the grievant and unit representative. The department head or his designated representative shall render his written disposition of the grievance within 5 working days after the above meeting.

Step 4. Mediation. Failing to resolve the grievance in the third step, the Union may submit the matter to the Michigan Employment Relations Commission for mediation within 5 calendar days of the receipt of the answer in step 3. It is understood that the results of this mediation step are non-binding upon the Employer and that the Michigan Employment Relations Commission response will be utilized as information in the final grievance step.

Step 5. Final Grievance Step. If a grievance has not been resolved by the foregoing procedures, it may be appealed to this step by delivering to the Probate Judge a written request for a meeting concerning the grievance within 5 calendar days following the receipt by the unit chairperson or the employee involved in it of the Employer's written answer in Step 2, Step 3 or Step 4, whichever step was appropriate for the grievance under consideration. Within 10 calendar days after the grievance has been appealed to this step, a meeting shall be held between representatives of the Employer and employee. The Employer's representative shall be the department head or his/her designee. The Union's representative shall be a member of the bargaining committee. Either party may have non-employee representatives present if desired. If the meeting cannot be held within the 10 calendar day period, it shall be scheduled for a date mutually convenient to the parties. At the conclusion of the conference, the Judge or his/her representative shall signify in writing the Employer's final response to the grievance.

Section 6.2. Settlement. Any and all grievances resolved at any step of the grievance procedure (except as noted in Step 4) as contained in this agreement shall be final and binding on the Court, the Union, and any and all Union employees involved in the particular grievance.

Section 6.3. Time Limitations. Time limits established in a grievance procedure shall be followed by the parties. If the Union fails to present a grievance in the allowed time or fails to advance it to the next step in a timely manner, it shall be considered resolved on the basis of the Employer's last disposition. If the time procedures are not followed by the Employer, the grievance shall automatically advance to the next step. The time limits established in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement, provided the extension request is reduced to writing and a period of extension is specified.

Section 6.4. Entering or Advancing Out of Order. Grievances may, with the consent of the parties, be commenced at any stage of the grievance procedure or may, with the consent of the parties, be advanced and processed out of order. Time limits may be waived upon written agreement of the parties.

Section 6.5. Claims for Back Wages. All claims for back wages shall be limited to the amount of wages that the employee would otherwise have earned less any unemployment compensation for personal services that the employee may have received. This back pay shall be paid by the next pay period following the resolution of the grievance.

ARTICLE VII. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

Section 7.1. Just Cause. Non-probationary employees will be disciplined only for just cause and any disciplinary action may go into immediate effect.

Section 7.2. Types of Disciplinary Action.

- A. Oral Reprimand. This form of disciplinary action may be used to correct and/or warn an employee of errors, poor work performance or violation of a minor nature. Such warnings will be given privately with only those persons involved.
- B. Written Reprimand. This is an action taken by a department head or a supervisor in which he/she writes out the action or behavior which he/she wishes to change, cease, or begin. The written reprimand will describe in detail the behavior to be corrected and will give direct and concrete orders for the future and will point out the consequences of repeating the actions which brought about the written reprimand.

The written reprimand must be presented to the employee. After a period of six months from the date of filing, such records shall be subject to review by the Employer and the employee upon request. Written reprimands which are more than four (4) years old shall not be used in imposing further discipline.

- C. Suspension Without Pay. This is an action taken by a department head or a supervisor removing an employee from employment in his department and from the Court payroll for a definite period of time not to exceed ten working days. Employees may not use any form of leave while under this type of disciplinary action.
- D. Demotion. This is an action taken by a department head or supervisor which reduces an employee's rate of pay within the employee's present classification.
 - (1) This action will be for a maximum of six months at which time the employee may return to the pay step prior to the demotion, if the employee has demonstrated the ability to perform work tasks required at that pay classification. Employees who have reached the top pay step shall be reduced a maximum of one pay step. All other employees could be reduced a maximum of two pay steps.
 - (2) The reasons for the demotion must be given in writing.
- E. Dismissal. This is an action taken by a department head which permanently removes an employee from employment in his/her department and from the Court payroll.
 - (1) Dismissed employees may not be kept in employment or paid for any time after the completion of their normal working day on the date they are dismissed.
 - (2) Dismissed employees shall be treated the same as employees separated for reasons other than retirement in the matters of payment for unused accumulated annual leave.
- F. Employees may examine their own individual personnel files at reasonable times under the direct supervision and approval of the Employer.

- G. Employees will not be questioned concerning an investigation of disciplinary action unless the employee has been given an opportunity to have a Union representative present at such questioning.
- H. Grievances relating to the dismissal of an employee shall be initiated by the Union at the final step of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE VIII.
SENIORITY

Section 8.1. Seniority means a full-time employee's length of continuous service with the Court since his/her last day of hire. An employee who has not completed six months of continuous employment shall not be considered to have seniority and shall not be considered a full-time employee.

Section 8.2. The seniority lists attached to this agreement will show the names and job titles of all employees of the Union entitled to seniority. This seniority list will also indicate the existing employee's date of seniority as determined by agreement between the Court and all Court employees.

Section 8.3. The employee's Court seniority shall accumulate continuously from the date of hire by the County for purposes of retirement, vacation time, and sick leave only.

Section 8.4. The employee's Court seniority is defined as the length of continuous employment with the Court. An employee who is placed into a new position within the Court will assume the lowest level of seniority in the new position classification for purposes of promotions and lay-off.

Section 8.5. An employee shall lose all seniority credit in the event of voluntary or involuntary termination. Failure to return from an expired leave of absence or lay-off shall subject the employee to dismissal unless employee has good cause.

Section 8.6. Any lay-off of an employee shall be made by inverse order of their seniority within the Court and within their respective classification. Although the Court recognizes the importance of seniority on the lay-off issue, employee qualifications must be considered in the lay-off process. No full-time employee shall be laid-off from any position while any probationary, temporary, or part-time Court employee is still employed in the affected classification. Employees laid-off or displaced under this article will be allowed to bump into a job, within the same classification, for which they have the seniority and qualifications.

Section 8.7. Full-time employees to be recalled from lay-off shall be called on the basis of required qualifications and seniority. The Employer agrees to discuss any recall not based on seniority with the Unit Committee. The Court shall notify employees to be recalled by certified mail at the employee's last known address. It will be the employee's responsibility to notify the Employer of any change of address.

Section 8.8. Transfers Out of the Bargaining Unit. An employee who accepts a position under the jurisdiction of the Employer (as defined herein) not included in this bargaining unit shall maintain all accumulated seniority to the date of classification change for a period of one year. There is no guarantee that a former employee will be able to regain his/her previous position during the first year or at any future date unless a vacancy occurs within the position classification from which the employee left. If a vacancy occurs in the eligible classification at any time in the future, and the former employee indicates in writing that he/she desires the position back, the Employer reserves the right to determine if the former employee continues to have the qualifications for the existing position. Based upon the qualifications factor, the Employer will or will not rehire the person. It will be the former employee's responsibility to make themselves aware of position vacancies.

Section 8.9. Job Posting. When knowledge of a job vacancy occurs in the Court, the Employer will post a notice on the bulletin boards giving all Court employees an opportunity to make application for the job by filing the appropriate application forms. All Court employees who are on sick, on workers' compensation, or other form of leave at the time of posting shall be eligible to apply. The Court shall provide appropriate job posting forms for Court employees. Such notice shall be posted for a period of at least five (5) working days. The job posting notice will show the classification and rate of a job vacancy. During the posting period, the Employer may make a temporary assignment to fill the posted vacancy. An employee appointed into a change of classification shall be given 60 (sixty) days to satisfactorily perform the job. If such employee fails to satisfactorily perform the job within said period, or wishes to withdraw from said job, he shall be returned to the previous or equal vacant position without loss of seniority.

Section 8.10. The Unit Committee will be notified of any testing procedures used by the Court in filling job postings.

Section 8.11. Promotions within the bargaining unit shall be made on the basis of seniority and qualifications as determined by the Employer. Qualifications may be determined by written and/or performance examination and previous working relationships within the Court or combination of these factors. A promotion is defined as a position involving a higher rate of pay or an upgrading of a position which materially increases responsibilities or desirability of a position.

Section 8.12. The Employer will provide a unit seniority list to the Union once per year.

ARTICLE IX.
HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT

Section 9.1. Normal Work Week and Work Day. The normal work week for all full-time and probationary employees of the Probate Court shall consist of forty hours of work performed in a period of Monday through Friday. The normal work day for full-time employees shall consist of eight hours of work, performed between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., exclusive of an unpaid lunch hour.

Section 9.2. Work Week and Work Day Definitions. Any definition of an employee's normal work week and work day stated in this agreement shall not constitute a guarantee by the Employer of any number of hours per work day or per work week. The Employer specifically reserves a right to reduce the number of hours per work day or per work week if operating or economic conditions warrant.

Section 9.3. Scheduling. The Employer shall have the right to determine, establish, and modify scheduling and manpower requirements to meet the needs of the public it serves including staggering starting and quitting times. It is expressly understood that work schedules may be changed whenever operating conditions or economic conditions warrant such change.

Section 9.4. Lunch Hour. Lunch hours should be scheduled between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. unless other arrangements with the employee's supervisor or department head have been approved.

Section 9.5. Employees are expected to conform with the above hours of work, report promptly for work and remain until the close of the regular shift. Habitual tardiness and/or absenteeism will not be tolerated and appropriate disciplinary action shall be taken. Management reserves the right to investigate misuse of these situations.

Section 9.6. Lunch Periods and Rest Periods. Each employee shall be allowed a one hour unpaid lunch period and two fifteen minute rest periods daily. Lunch periods and rest periods shall be staggered so as not to curtail services to the public. Rest periods shall be considered as working time and may not be added to the lunch period or accumulated in any manner.

ARTICLE X.
LAY-OFF

Section 10.1. The Employer shall give written notice to the full-time Court employee and the Union on any proposed lay-off under normal circumstances. Such notice shall be submitted at least five (5) working days before the effective date thereof. Under non-normal circumstances, the Employer will notify the employee as soon as possible.

Section 10.2. Any lay-offs shall take place in accordance with an employee's seniority in the classification affected. The first employees to be laid-off within the bargaining unit classification shall be probationary employees. Thereafter, the first employees to be laid-off in the affected classification shall be those employees with the least amount of seniority, providing, however, senior employees retained presently have the necessary training, experience, qualifications, skill, and ability to perform efficiently the required work.

Section 10.3. When there is a lay-off in the work force, it shall be in the following order:

- A. Substitute employee.
- B. Part-time employees.
- C. Full-time probationary employees.
- D. Full-time employees.

ARTICLE XI. BUMPING AND RECALL

Section 11.1. Employees laid-off or displaced will be allowed to bump into a job for which they have the seniority and the qualification within their classification. The qualifications are defined as the necessary training, experience, skill and ability to perform efficiently the remaining required work.

Section 11.2. Employees electing to bump may only be allowed to bump within their classification.

Section 11.3. The Employer shall supply all laid-off employees with a list of positions that they could bump into. The Employer also agrees to notify all laid-off employees of any new job openings for which they qualify. This shall occur for a period of one year.

ARTICLE XII. BULLETIN BOARDS

Section 12.1. The Employer will furnish and maintain reasonable Union bulletin board space agreeable to the parties at locations where employees covered by this agreement are employed. The board shall be used for the following subjects.

- A. Union recreational and social and related news bulletins.
- B. Scheduled Union meetings.

- C. Information covering Union elections or the result thereof.
- D. Reports of official business of the Union, including reports of committees, local offices or the international.
- E. Any other material which has been approved by the Employer and the local Union chairman.

ARTICLE XIII.
PAY PROVISIONS

Section 13.1. Wages. The wages for all employees covered under this agreement shall remain at 2010 levels, except for scheduled step increases unless prohibited by law, change in classification, and reclassifications.

The wages for all employees are listed in the County's Wage and Salary program, according to the attached wage schedules, and are in effect for the duration of this agreement.

Section 13.2. Classification. When a full-time classified Court position is established, the Court shall designate a job classification and provide a job description using the Bay County Wage and Salary program system. The Employer shall designate the rate of pay in conformity with the Bay County Salary program job evaluation plan and the rates established in this contract. The Union shall be notified in writing of such new classifications and pay rates. Pay rates are subject to negotiation and the Employer may implement its last best offer as permitted by law.

When new classifications or jobs are implemented, the union will be notified and furnished a job description.

Section 13.3. Reclassification. When an employee believes that his or her classification is deserving of consideration, the Union may present their request. The Personnel Director and the Union agree to discuss such reclassification requests applying the methods set forth in the County's Wage and Salary Program. In order to receive consideration, such requests must be received by the County prior to May 1 of each year and any adjustments will become effective as of July 1 of the same year, and September 1 of each year and any adjustments will become effective as of January 1 of the following year. The current pay scale will continue to be used to determine the appropriate pay step in which to place an employee whose position was reclassified. The reclassification decisions made by the County Board of Commissioners are not grievable.

Section 13.4. Overtime. It is understood that compensatory time will be utilized in all situations involving overtime unless it cannot be taken within the pay period earned.

Section 13.5. Full-time employees, with the exception of professional staff, may be compensated at time and one half the employee's regular hourly rate of pay for employment in excess of forty hours per week. Full-time professional staff may be compensated at hour for hour for time spent in excess of an eight hour day. No overtime will be worked unless previously approved by the supervisor or department head unless of an emergency nature.

When the need arises to transport a juvenile to a placement out of town and that placement is at a distance that cannot be covered in an eight hour day, the employee shall be entitled to compensatory time on an hour-for-hour basis beyond the normal eight hour day and shall be taken within the pay period earned.

Section 13.6. Out of Classification Pay. When an employee has been notified by his or her immediate supervisor to fill a vacancy in a higher level job for a period of more than fifteen (15) working days, he/she shall be compensated for such hours worked at the rate of the entry step; or if this rate is not equal to an increase in rate for the involved employee, the compensation shall be at the lowest pay grade range for the job which does provide an increase in pay to the employee. This agreement is subject to the following conditions:

- A. In the opinion of the immediate supervisor, the employee is fully qualified to perform the duties of that position.
